ENJOY RESPONSIBLY

You told me you loved the hub, but wanted more! So that's just what we did!

Welcome to another fabulous Feast! It's time for everyone to come together to celebrate our amazing festival!

In 2011, Light Square will once again become our place, where we will create a vibrant Festival Hub. The Ballroom and Lounge venues will host a torrent of world class cabaret and theatre performances, live music, films, literary events and even some outdoor cooking at The Camp Site, our fabulous new venue. The Camp Site is the place to enjoy improvised music nights, poetry readings or just sitting around the camp fire.

For the first time Feast will create an outdoor cinema, where you can enjoy free silent movies. We have created exhibition spaces for six high profile queer art shows as well as revamping the outdoor stage, so local DJ's and talented emerging musicians can play every night!

Light Square will host our huge Opening Night Party, Picnic After Party and Feast's brand new CommUNITY Weekend. The middle weekend of Feast will be jam packed with a commUNITY expo, garage sale, a wellbeing retreat, an afternoon tea feast, circus workshops, giant board games, zumba, salsa, belly dancing classes and so much more!

I encourage you to attend as many Feast events as possible and make the Hub the central meeting place for the LGBTIQ community and our friends in November. This is your festival, come out, support and enjoy it!

Thank you to the Feast staff and Board who have worked particularly hard this year, our wonderful volunteers and the hundreds of artists and community members who bring you Feast.

In 2011, I hope we all come together to enjoy a fabulous festival!

Creative Producer, Feast 2011

Ninna Marni

(Kaaruna words for 'Hello, how are you?')

Feast would like to acknowledge this land that we meet on during the Festival is the traditional lands for Kaurna people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their country. We also acknowledge the Kaurna people as the custodians of the Adelaide region and that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still as important to the living Kaurna people today.

 Feast Festival's
 Communications & Technology

Since it was established in 1997, the Feast Festival has grown in both scope and profile to become one of the highlights of our State's cultural calendar.

Through its myriad of events and the great success of the Festival Hub in Light Square, Feast proudly flies the flag for diversity and inclusiveness.

This year's Festival theme Coming Together reflects the strong sense of creativity and community that Feast engenders.

As a celebration of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer life and lifestyle, the Feast Festival brings together artists and audiences from throughout Australia, through a carnival that recognises difference while also promoting acceptance.

I congratulate the terrific work of Feast's organisers, staff and the countless volunteers who are integral to the Festival's ongoing success, and I extend my best wishes to everyone taking part in this year's event.

Mike Rann
 Premier Of South Australia
 Minister For The Arts

Welcome to the City of Adelaide for the 2011 Feast Festival.

The City of Adelaide is proud that Light Square will again serve as the event's Hub, so the heart of the Festival can be in the heart of the city.

Adelaide City Council is also pleased by how the Feast Festival encourages all sectors of the community to share in a range of artistic experiences, reflected in this year's theme, Coming Together.

I encourage everyone to support the 2011 Feast Festival and I wish the event every success.

Stephen Yarwood
 Lord Mayor

It is with great pleasure that I add my support to the 2011 Feast Festival program.

This year's theme, Coming Together, will infuse this vibrant 16 day festival with energy as a celebration of community and meaningful creative collaborations.

Deeply embedded in Feast is its dedication to sharing stories, art and music. Feast provides a platform for powerful and proud artistic expression of identity in a celebration of diversity. It is an important and much loved festival in South Australia's arts and cultural calendar.

The Festival Hub at Light Square continues to be an exciting initiative of Feast, and perfectly encapsulates the concept of Coming Together. The Hub draws people together in one place as a community where individuals and groups are encouraged to share their experiences and ideas through creativity. The Hub provides a fantastic opportunity for South Australian artists to perform in an exciting mix of interesting and innovative venues.

I wish to congratulate the Feast team and the many volunteers who have made the festival possible this year. I encourage you all to explore the program and get involved with this fantastic festival in all its richness.

Alexandra Reid
 Executive Director
 Arts SA

The South Australian Government is proud to support the Feast Festival, which has grown since its inception in 1997 into the biggest arts festival of its kind in Australia.

Last year's Festival attracted 45,000 participants, including a large contingent of interstate visitors, who enjoyed 16 days of theatre, cabaret, film, forums, literature, visual arts, radio, sporting and community events.

I encourage all visitors in Adelaide for the event to take the opportunity to sample the very best our city has to offer, and to explore South Australia's diverse regions including the Adelaide Hills, Barossa Valley, Fleurieu Peninsula, and the unspoilt beauty of Kangaroo Island.

The Hon John Rau MP
 Minister for Tourism
